
GUIDELINES FOR PREPARING ABSTRACTS

In order to provide the workshop attendees with a compact set of abstracts for each of the formal papers, presentations and poster displays at the meeting, abstracts must be prepared in accordance with the following guidelines:

Use left and right margins of .8 inch (2 cm).

Use 12 point type in Times Roman or a similar font for the headings and 11 point type for the text of the abstract.

The style should conform to the example provided below: (1) The title of the paper/presentation in bold face capital letters; (2) skip a line and enter author's last name in bold face capital letters, followed by initials. (3) skip a line and enter the affiliation (s). Full addresses will be included in the list of participants. (4) Skip a line and enter the body of the abstract.

Due to space constraints, abstracts must be limited to not more than 300 words.

Abstracts must be sent by e-mail as a word file or by mail.

Please do NOT send abstracts by Fax.

'DEVOLUTION' AS AN OPPORTUNITY TO TEST THE SYNERGISM HYPOTHESIS

CORNING, P. A. AND DOE, J.

Institute for the Study of Complex Systems, Palo Alto, USA

"Devolution" is a political buzzword these days as empires, nations, bureaucracies and even business-firms collapse, divide, downsize, outsource and in various ways become less than they once were. But what does devolution mean? And how can we measure it? And, most important, how do we explain it?
